Hi!, I am a recent Computing Science graduate eager to kickstart a career in IT. A fast learner with a growth mindset, I am passionate about problem-solving, software development, and developing technolgies. With a proactive and creative approach, I thrive in dynamic environments and enjoy collaborating and working solo. I am excited to contribute my technical and analytical skills to drive positive change. Beyond tech, I have a keen interest in sports, gaming, music, and films, which inspire my creativity and teamwork.
